№ 1324.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

BY allowing the Following a Place in your Paper, you will oblige one who is a true Friend to the present Government, tho' he has no Place in it.

RELIGION an HONOUR and SAFEGUARD to a NATION.

THE Thoughts of a Supreme Being, and of the Service due to him, are so obvious, and necessary withal, that it is astonishing how they should be so much neglected and disregarded. But if we consider Men's Inclinations to Evil on one Side, and the World's Allurements on the other, the Wonder ceases. Luxury and Looseness of Morals are said to be prevailing, sadly prevailing at this Day, among us. How far this may be true, I shall not now enquire; 'tis own'd they are here, and that is enough. Ills of this Nature are like a contagious Distemper, they run from one Person to another, till the whole Multitude is almost infected. A neighbouring Nation has spread its Levities and Vanities all over Europe, or the greatest Part of it; and made them as notorious as its Counsels and Politicks. It's Modes and Fashions have not only serv'd to corrupt Peoples Morals, but they have likewise been instrumental in vitiating and debauching their very Tastes. Balls, Masquerades, and such like, may make People soft, and effeminately polite, but they can never render them either good, wise, or glorious. I don't find that our Ancestors, who put their Enemies so often to the Rout, were either Beaus, Fops, or Epicures. Nor do I read that they mov'd by French Leadingstrings, or feasted on what was dress'd by Monsieur Ragout. Had they been of this polite Softness, instead of behaving like Heroes, they had pass'd their Lives in inglorious Ease, and died without a Name.

'Tis vile in Men to act contrary to their Nature. They were not born to be the Centre of their own Actions, or live wholly to themselves; they came into the World to glorify GOD, and to be of Service in their Generation. While Men have an Opportunity to serve the Publick, they ought to do it with Justice and Equity; for to do it otherwise is base, dishonourable, and wicked. Where is the Honour, nay, where is the Justice, to ruin one State to aggrandise another? War is at best a Sort of Butchery, and ought never to be enter'd into but upon a just Account; and when it is begun, should be ended as soon as the Reason of the Thing, and Exigency of Affairs permit. There may be as much Honour gain'd in making of a Peace, as in waging a War.

Where the Spirit of Religion dwells, there is no Place for mean, low, and unworthy Thoughts. These Things are not only different, but, like Virtue and Vice, they are contrary, and one imports the Negative of the other. As Religion gives People a true Notion of God, it likewise incites them to do every thing that is worthy of him, and of themselves. What Trust or Confidence can there be put in a profligate Wretch, who serves not God, but is a Slave to his wicked Lusts and Passions? Is such a Person likely to be a good Neighbour, or a good and faithful Subject? A Man of this wicked Disposition, or one of no Principles, ought to be shunn'd and detested, as a publick Pest. All Corruption is scandalous, all Injustice is hateful and abominable. Happy is it for that Nation, whose Peoples Virtues are shining and conspicuous!

As the British Nation is entring into a War, in order to assert its just Rights, I hope I may be allow'd, at this critical Juncture, to recommend that to my Fellow-subjects, which is most likely to procure God's Favour, and Success. What I mean, is A TRUE SENSE OF RELIGION; this certainly is the only Way to make them cease all Feuds and Animosities, to prefer the Good of the Publick to their own narrow and private Views, and to behave like Men, and true Britons.

On these and the like Considerations, it is greatly to be hoped, that a true Spirit of Religion, Honour, and Virtue will appear in all People who wish their Country well; that those at the Helm will consult the common Good, and make the Nation's Cause their own; that others will lay aside all Opposition, and, instead of weakening, will strengthen the Hands of the Ministry: Then our Friends abroad will court us, and our Enemies will fear us.

PHILOPATRIS.

Hague, Sept. 14. O. S.

THEY write from Francfort, that on the 4th at Night the Corpse of the Landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt was interred in the Tomb of his Ancestors, without any Pomp. His Excellency Mr. Walpole set out on the 11th for Dieren, to spend a few Days with the Prince and Princess of Orange, before he departs for England.

They write from Elsineur, that when the French Squadron commanded by the Vice-Admiral the Marquis d'Antin pass'd that Port on its Return homewards, it did not pay the usual Salute to that Fortress; at which, 'tis said, the Danish Court is very much surprized: And that 12000 Men of the King's Troops, and 24 Ships of the Line of Battle, are order'd to be in a Readiness. 'Tis said, that when the Peace was sign'd between the Emperor and the Turks, in the Camp before Belgrade, the Garison had had only 200 Men kill'd; but that the Turks Army consisted of above 100000 Men, whereas that of Count Wallis was but 27000, too weak a Body to attempt to raise the Siege. They write from Rome, that Cardinal Colcia is about hiring one of the finest Palaces in that City, from whence the Opinion revives, that he will soon be released from his Confinement, and appear again in Publick.

By the Measures that are taken in the North, a Rupture between Sweden and Russia is reckon'd unavoidable next Spring. The Senate of Sweden has had an extraordinary Assembly, to examine nicely whether the Court of Russia has not contraven'd any of the Articles of the Peace of Neustadt; but 'tis suppos'd that's only a Stratagem to conceal the Resolutions that were taken in the Secret Committee of the last Dyet; and 'tis affirm'd, that before the Year's End a new one will be summon'd, to concert Measures for putting the Resolutions of the former in Execution.

PARALYTICON, ſeu Anima Nervorum

A Stupendous Chymical Eſſence, which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other NERVOUS DISEASES:

THE very firſt Doſe of it (a few Drops only) inſtantly penetrates the inmoſt Receſſes of the ſeated Nerves, and darting almoſt as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human Syſtem, diffuſes kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaker'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate ſenſible Relief in the moſt obſtinate Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Weakneſs, whether univerſal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very firſt Doſe makes an apparent demonſtrable Amendment, ſo the continuing of it for a ſhort Time as ſurely accompliſhes a perfect Cure, not only of the moſt grievous Palſy or Relaxation of the Nerves, but alſo of their Cramp-like Contractions, Shaking of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints whatever, or that in Perſons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occaſioned by preceding Illneſſes, faſt Living, hard Drinking, long Courſes of Phyſick, great Colds, or exceſſive Fatigue, either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot ſufficiently expreſs the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vaſtly ſuperior Excellency to all other Remedies may be more ſecurely rely'd on, for the abſolute Cure of the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indiſpoſitions, than the Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, enriches the Blood, reſtores the nervous Vigour and ſteady Uſe of the Limbs, and ſtrengthens the inſirm Joints, Muſcles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to a remarkable Degree.

It is alſo very pleaſant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngeſt Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Rudisal's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

For the PALSY,

An infallible and ſpeedy Cure, by one inward Medicine, being a moſt pleaſant Chymical Tincture, to be taken in Drops,

WHICH gives inſtant Relief in any Paralytick or Nervous Indiſpoſitions, proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever; and alſo in all Weakneſſes, or Decays of Nature, whether from Old Age, or occaſioned by continued Illneſs of Body, or any Irregularities of Living, ſuch as hard Drinking, &c. whereby Nature is ſorely weakened, and often in a Manner quite ſpoiled.

This infallible Chymical Tincture is endued with ſuch ſpecifick Qualities, that it inſtantly enters the Nerves, the principal Seat of all Complaints of a Paralytick Kind, reſtores natural Heat and Strength to a Degree conſiſtent with a good State of Health; and in a very little time perfectly cures all Paralytick Weakneſſes of the longeſt ſtanding; and alſo the ſevereſt or worſt Effects of it either on old or young, ſuch as ſhaking or trembling of the Limbs, Numbneſs, or even Deadneſs on any Part of the Body; as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and all Ages, before this Publication.

As for any Weakneſſes or Decays of Nature, by Age or otherwiſe, this Tincture has not its Equal; it is ſo gracious in Operation, as not to give the leaſt Diſturbance in taking, but in its Effects ſo ſtrong and prevalent, that all Decays or Weakneſſes of Nature, whether Paralytick, Convulſive, or any other Indiſpoſitions attending the Head and Nerves, are inſtantly relieved, and daily mended; ſo as in a very little Time a perfect Cure is accompliſhed.

It is exceeding pleaſant to take, ſafe in Operation, and perfectly agreeable to the Stomach and Palate, greatly helps Digeſtion, cauſes a good Appetite, revives and ſtrengthens the whole Human Frame, and is ſo ſafe and regular a Cure of all Paralytick, Convulſive, and other Nervous Indiſpoſitions, that nothing in the World was ever yet known to come near it.

It is ſold by ſpecial Order of the Author, only at Mrs. Makyham's Toyſhop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle.
